

SOLE PRACTITIONER

Rosenberg Law is a highly-regarded litigation firm, located on the scenic waterfront of False Creek, near Olympic Station. We have a broad litigation practice with an emphasis on Class Actions, Aboriginal Title and Appellate Advocacy.

We are seeking a sole practitioner to join our firm. The ideal candidate will have their own book of business, which aligns with areas of law that the firm has historically and/or currently practises. In addition, the right candidate will work autonomously with support from our support staff of two paralegals and one legal assistant.

Areas of law include Civil and Criminal litigation, and more specifically:

- General litigation
- Class Actions
- Aboriginal Title
- Appellate advocacy

We welcome all candidates to submit their application with a covering letter and CV in total confidence to dulcie@rosenberglaw.ca.
